

The Boston Chapter of the AANN is Neuroscience Nurses from Boston to Providence, who are members of the National Association. These professionals are interested in advancing neuroscience nursing care and supporting the nurses who deliver that care in the Greater Boston area. Activities include quarterly business meetings, CEU presentations, newsletter publication, networking with colleagues, disseminating information from the national association and community outreach.

We invite you to attend one of our quarterly meetings to see for yourself the benefits of joining. Contact any of our area representatives to learn more about upcoming meetings.

We hope you will consider becoming a member.
